'Restoration' of democracy instead of 'more' democracy!

RE –THINKING KARL MARX (Berlin 21/5/11) *steht für die Neubewertung der Politik der Wertvorstellung (1848) und des volonté générale (1789) gegenüber der "Realpolitik" (August Ludwig von Rochau 1853). 'Most diverse Humanist Congress ever will train the next generation of leaders'

Dear Mrs. Sonja Eggerickx and Mr. Thorbjørn Jagland.

Not: 'more' democracy but 'recovery' of democracy! We demand: from all present- and new leaders, men or women, that they respect and give back the knowledge of: the Volonté Générale, the 'Intérêts Général' (1789), the duties of the Heads of State in maintaining the principles of the fundamental rights of 1848, the very essence of populism, actio popularis, nemo tenetur, trias politica (Montesquieu) and the Code de Bordeaux (1954). Right, including human rights, without duties, of the private Court of Human Rights of the Heads of State in Strasbourg, doesn't exist! All these fundamental criterions of democracy, freedom and freedom of speech with political authority in the public area of the institutions have, provably by jurisprudence, silently been abolished.

'Anders Breyvik has shuffled the cards. You have to start again'

(The quiet revolution' Dutch writer Gerrit Komrij NRC 28/7/11)

We also want a parliament of people (Example: The Thinkers Club: German: Der Denker-Club) instead of Political Party Representation. Leaders should definitively abolish the "Realpolitik" of 1853 including the strategy of the codex alimentarius of 2008-2013 and the tetras politica inclusive the digital mouse-click democracy, like signing petitions without political authority! Example: www.no-patents-on-seeds.org. Leaders have to respect the human moral, ethic and values again in accordance to la volonté générale, l'intérêt général (1789) and the principles of the fundamental rights of 1848. Quote: 'Most diverse Humanist Congress ever will train the next generation of leaders World Humanist Congress

We are all in sorrow and extend our sympathy to all people affected by the tragic events in Norway
22 July.

The Norwegian government have issued an advice to carry out planned activities.
The 2011 World Humanist Congress will be held as scheduled.

We feel there is renewed reason to meet in Oslo and work on ways to promote peace. We want humanists from around the world to gather in Norway to celebrate diversity, thought and reason.
